ARTICLE I MEETINGS

Section 1: The regular meetings of this club shall be held at times and a places agreed upon by members.

Section 2: Special meetings may be called by the President, either at his direction of or at the request of five members in good standing. No business shall be transacted at special meetings other than that for which the meeting was called. Special meetings which determine penalties such as those described in Article II Section 1 and 2 or any section of Article VI shall have at least three elected officers present, including the President, who must be present.

Section 3: At all meetings, the presence of 20% of the membership shall constitute quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is not available at three consecutive meetings, such items that would normally be decided only by a quorum can be decided by a majority vote of members present at a regular club meeting.

Section 4: The club meeting shall be opened by the President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President. Should both President and Vice-President be absent, the club meeting may be opened by a past president, seniority being considered. Should no such person be present, all club business shall be postponed until the next regularly scheduled meeting.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: All applications for membership must be accompanied by the recommendation of a club member in good standing and must meet other requirements as provided in Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution. The initiation fee and dues required by the By-Laws must accompany the application.

The elected Treasurer may make occasional exceptions and allow partial payments toward club dues and fees for a period of up to three months. If the applicant defaults in payment, the Treasurer may recommend to the Executive Board that action be taken against the applicant, up to and including expulsion from the club and/or collection of money owed.

Section 2: Should the applicant be rejected, the admission fee shall be returned to him, but if elected and he fails to appear at 3 succeeding regular meetings thereafter, such election will be void and the amount paid forfeited to the club, unless a reasonable excuse be given.

ARTICLE III FEES AND DUES

Section 1: The initiation fee for persons 10 years of age through 16, who are admitted to the club, shall be $25.00. The initiation fee for families and for persons 17 years of age or older, shall be $100.00.

Section 2: Members reinstated shall pay the same amount as a new applicant of the same age and as provided in Article VI, Section 2 of the Constitution.

Section 3: No dues will be assessed members 10 years of age through 16. Members who are 17 years of age or older will pay $60.00 dues annually. Individuals under the age of 17 who are immediate family members of any current club member do not pay initiation fees or dues but must apply for membership and be approved in the same manner as any other applicant. New members who are 17 years of age or older and who are not included in a family membership, shall pay 1/12 of the regular dues for each month remaining in the year, during which they become members. In no case shall dues so assessed exceed regular annual dues.

Section 4: All members are required to be current AMA members before membership is in effect. All members must maintain a current and consecutive AMA membership at all times or lose active status and all flying privileges. No exceptions will be made.

Section 5: Clarification of how dues are to be paid:

- 1: Club dues are payable at or prior to the first meeting of the new year.
- 2: Before dues are accepted, the club member must show evidence of current AMA membership for the year in which the club dues relate.
- 3: Members still delinquent by the February meeting will be advised by mail that dues must be paid, along with a $1.00 late fee, by the March meeting. If this does not take place by the March meeting they will be dropped from the club membership and will not be permitted to use any designated club flying area.

ARTICLE IV PENALTIES

Section 1: No member who is in arrears, in accordance with the period stated in Article VI Section 1 of the Constitution, shall be allowed to vote on any question before the club.

Section 2: If any member, who shall willfully make false or malicious charges or accusations against another member, in or out of the club, shall be subject to suspension or expulsion, according to the extent of the offense.

Section 3: If any member shall disregard the authority of the President by persisting in the use of improper language or conduct himself in a disorderly manner, the club may inflict such penalty as the case may require, which may result in expulsion.

Section 4: Any member guilty of improper conduct within the club, or who shall knowingly propose an unworthy person for membership shall be subject to suspension or expulsion, as the club may determine.

Section 5: Any member guilty of an infamous act against the laws of the land shall be expelled.

Section 6: Any member guilty of flying a model aircraft at the ERCA flying site without current AMA coverage will face a suspension of up to six months for a first offense. Any member guilty of such conduct a second time will be suspended for up to 12 months and face possible expulsion from the club.

Section 7: Any incident in which a non-member is found to be flying a model aircraft without current AMA coverage at the ERCA flying site may be trespassed from ERCA property and events.

Section 8: Any action taken against a member or non-member of the club will be decided and voted on by the Executive Board at a special meeting to be arranged by the President. The Executive Board may exercise discretion when assigning penalties.

Section 9: Any member who allows their AMA membership to lapse will be considered in arrears of Article III Section 4 of these By-Laws and will not be permitted to vote on any question before the club.

ARTICLE V BALLOTS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1: The elective officers shall be voted for separately and must receive a majority of all votes cast to entitle them to election. When there are more than two candidates for the same office the candidate having the least number of votes shall be dropped at each successive ballot.

Section 2: At all elections for officers and directors, the Secretary shall provide blank ballots for the use of the members. The President shall appoint two members who shall count the votes cast and declare the results to the president, by whom it shall be announced to the club.

Section 3: Membership will be notified, by mail, prior to club elections, allowing them absentee balloting if unable to make scheduled meetings.

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1: It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings and enforce the due observance of the Constitution and By-Laws, see that the officers of the club and members of committees perform their respective duties, have charge of the door, give the casting vote on all matters and questions (except at elections for officers and applications for membership), have charge of the Charter, know and sign, if necessary, all warrants drawn by the Secretary or the Treasurer, for sums as shall have been voted upon by the club, and perform such other duties as pertain to his office.

Section 2: The Vice-President shall assist the President in the performance of his duties, appoint the minority in all committees, preside in the absence of the president, and perform all other duties required of him. The Vice-President shall act as the Director of contest activities approved by club members.

Section 3: The Secretary shall keep and correct records of all proceedings of the club, write and issue all communications and notices ordered by the club, notify members in arrears, as provided in Article IV Section 1 of the Constitution and perform such other duties that may be required of him.

Section 4: The Treasurer shall receive from the Secretary all moneys of the club, giving a receipt for the same, pay all orders drawn on him by the Secretary and signed or noted by the President, have a book in which he shall keep a full account of all money received and dispersed. He shall after the last meeting of his term, furnish the club with a full report of all receipts and disbursements of the term.

ARTICLE VII BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: The board of directors shall consist of five members, one of whom shall be the President.

Section 2: It shall be the duty of the Directors to perform such functions as required by the club concerning any major issue that may affect the club as a whole They shall receive, from the Treasurer, such sums of money needed to expedite the clubs activities, act as a body in fulfilling the needs of the club, their findings and decisions to be voted upon by the members, acquire, in the performance of their duties (under the supervision of the club), and perform all other duties, pertaining to them, in accordance with the desires of the club.
